

PARNELL'S DOWNFALL.

The decision in the O'Shea divorce suit, in which Parnell, the Irish leader, was summoned into Court as a correspondent, disposes of Parnell as a political factor.

Up to the time of his infatuation for his friend's wife he stood upon a pedestal of confidence and esteem reared by his countrymen, from which the combined forces of the British Government and the London Times could not move him.

What a mighty government could not accomplish a woman succeeded in doing, and now Parnell passes away as an Irish leader, for a man who betrays the hospitality and confidence of his friend, as Parnell betrayed O'Shea, will never be able to win back the confidence of the public.

Parnell made a splendid fight for the cause of Ireland, and when the first accusations were brought against him in the divorce suit it was regarded as a conspiracy to crush him.

The evidence was positive, however, and the fact that he made no defense settled the question of his guilt in the eyes of the world.

LEGISLATION FOR THE RICH.

Mr. Wells Drury, in a communication to the APPEAL, holds that the Constitutional Convention should not require its members to sit for nothing, as it would result in only the rich being there and legislating for themselves.

This is an argument sound in theory only; all legislation, or at least the bulk of it, is for the rich. Rich men do not need to go to Conventions and Legislatures to pass laws for themselves. They can buy whatever legislation they want from the poor.

Lots of men will purchase votes on a measure that their standing in the community would not permit them to support and vote for were they members of the body endorsing it.

The idea that the poor have any chance in Conventions because they have representatives there smacks considerably of moonshine.

Undaunted by Defeat.

The Merced (Cal.) Journal is not to be discouraged by defeat at the polls. A rampant rooster heads the top of its editorial page, and then comes two heads, reading as follows: "What's the matter with Bob Cleek? He's all right, you bet," and then comes the following: "We lost the eleven county officers, we have lost both Supervisors—we have lost six Justices of the Peace and six Constables out of six each to be elected, and we have lost everything else erst-while in sight with one notable and pleasing exception; by the grace of God and Plainsburg we have saved Bob Cleek, road-master in No. 2. Robert, shake! You are the Markman of your party. We long to see your winning smile—it would lighten up the gloom," as it were—and to clasp your magnetic hand. You stand to-day the idol, the pet and the pride of the party. We have placed your victorious name on the free list of the Journal for the term of your natural and remarkable life. In an official sense, Robert, you will be somewhat lonesome for the next two years, but you can console yourself with the bright prospects which the future holds out to you. You will be the mascot of the anti-saloon party in the next campaign."

A Farm Without a Whip.

There is a beautiful farm just back of Ocean Springs, Miss., owned by Mr. Parker Earle, who, very wisely, allows no man on the place to use a whip on any of the stock. It is said that there is but one old whip on the farm, probably a relic of some other owner, but the old whip is not used, and the farm does well and the animals work with a will and never feel a lash. Kindness can run anything; even a farm.

THE MANHATTAN

Life Insurance Co.,

OF NEW YORK.

ASSETS - - $12,000,000.

BETTER THAN A

GOVERNMENT BOND.

The MANHATTAN for a limited period will offer the residents of Nevada a Bond Combining Insurance and investment that is in reach of all and which every healthy able-bodied man in the State should possess—for the protection of himself and family.

In explanation read what follows: Suppose a special agent of the U. S. Treasury Department should call on you today and say:

The Government would like to sell you bonds for any amount between $1,000 and $30,000 and if it is not convenient for you to make the investment at once, we will allow you to pay for the bonds in Ten Equal Annual Installments.

And, suppose, in addition to this, the Government, wishing to make this the most desirable investment in the world, should stipulate in the bond, not only to pay them at the end of the term, but in case of your previous death, to pay them to your family and AT THE SAME TIME RELEASE YOUR FAMILY FROM PAYING ANY FURTHER MONEY.

Would you not at once close with such an offer? And yet this is practically what the Manhattan Life Insurance Company, of New York has done and is doing.
